

CODE OF CONDUCT & STUDENT BEHAVIOR POLICY

Camp Student Behavior

Responsibility: Students are responsible for their own actions.

Respect: Students must respect themselves, other students and adults, youth volunteers, camp equipment, and the environment.

Caring and Cooperation: Students will show kindness to their fellow students and adults and abide by the rules established at camp.

Honesty: Honesty will be the basis of all camp interactions.

We encourage all camp students to follow the Chinmaya Safety Pact:

1. If someone makes you uncomfortable with their words or touch, tell a trusted adult.
2. Beware of social media and bullies. Talk to a trusted adult if anything on social media or online is upsetting.

Discipline Policy

When a Camp student does not follow the behavior guidelines listed above, the Summer Camp Administrators and Lead Sevaks will take the following action/steps:

1. Redirecting behavior (changing the student's focus)
2. Verbal redirecting behavior ("please stop..." or "please do....")
3. Remove the student from the activity.

Each time a student is required to be removed from an activity, a behavior incident report may be generated. A copy will be provided to the parent. If a third behavior incident report is generated, a lead sevak will call the parents to discuss the matter. If the behavior continues after the parent phone call, the student will be asked not to attend camp for a day. If the behavior continues, the student may be dismissed from the camp. Camp fees are non-refundable if a student is dismissed from camp for disciplinary reasons.

Electronic Gadgets

Electronic gadgets (ipod, ipad, cell phone, etc) are not permitted on the premises of the camp. Any violations will be documented and action will be taken as per the electronics policy of the camp.

Privacy Policy

The family's contact information provided to the Mission will be used only for internal purposes. If any of this information is to be used in flyers, websites, or other publicity material, we will do so only with your permission.

From time to time, for publicity purposes, CMWRC will publish photos of members taken at different Mission sessions or events, without identifying the members. If we have to identify the members, we will do so only with your prior permission.
