

We expect all children to follow these rules of conduct!

The Bala Vihar classes start promptly at the scheduled time. Children are requested to be punctual; they should be seated and ready for Hanuman Chalisa followed by Arati at least ten minutes before the start time.

Dress code for Bala Vihar Children:

Boys – Kurta Pajama or full pants with kurta. No hats, jeans, or shorts.

Girls – Salwar Kameez or long skirt with blouse. Wear a bindi.

Children or Youth who are attending some other activity after Bala Vihar may bring a change of clothes with them

Respect for self is respect for others. Children should be attentive and respectful in class, and raise their hands and wait their turn before speaking.

Children should come to class prepared, and with their Bala Vihar notebook, textbooks, pencil and box of crayons or colored pens (for younger children). [Also included in the Parent Info section.]

Children are expected to exhibit good manners and maintain discipline at all times. Running in the building, or disturbing any of the books or materials in the classroom is not permitted.

Chewing gum, drinks, or food should not be consumed in in the classrooms.

Use of smart devices (mobile phones, tablets etc.) is not permitted during any classes. If the child(ren) are found using any of those devices, the teacher will take the smart device from the child(ren) and parents will have to collect it from the teacher.